

Do You Realize?

That clothing insures your comfort by affording protection from the heat or cold?

Do you think that books and newspapers insure you against ignorance?

you toned up?

Duffy's Pure

Malt Whiskey.

Which never fails to give strength and vigor to those who are weak or run down. Nothing so quickly overcomes exhaustion and debility. Nothing compares with it for stirring up the sluggish blood and building up the health. For curing or preventing

Hellerman

The Picture-Framer
OF ST. LOUIS,
409 Locust St.

PASSED A BAD CHECK.
He Took a Drink First and Then He Got the Money.

The police are on the lookout for a man giving his name as Fred Meyer, who is accused of passing a bogus check on James Ghio, a saloonkeeper at 322 Pine street, on the 18th inst.

chasing a drink, engaged in conversation with the proprietor. He represented himself as a traveling salesman for George F. Clafin, a dry goods merchant of New York. He impressed Mr. Ohio favorably, and when the stranger presented a check on the Boatmen's Bank of this city for $7.40 and asked to have it cashed the saloon-

The check was made payable to George F. Cladin or Fred Meyer, was indorsed by the latter, and purported to be signed by Browning, King & Co. Mr. Ghio deposited the check in his bank and the next day it was returned to him marked "worthless."

Meyer is described as about 45 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, light complexion, blonde mustach, well dressed and a smooth talker.

Shaffer's Case Dismissed.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 21.—The State Attorney this morning nolle prossed the indictment against Simon Shaffer of Chicago, ex-Representative in the Legislature, who was indicted for attempting to get money from Peoria distillers to influence legislation.

Burial Permits.

Frederick Johanan, 73, City Hospital; stricture.
John Runk, 79, City Hospital; meningitis.
Joe Bloesser, 50, City Hospital; edema.
John Heine, 58, City Hospital; appendicitis.
Bernard J. Conway, 20, 11 South Sixteenth; phthisis pulmonalis.
Wm. Johnson, 71, 1318 North Eleventh street.

Wm. Cummings, 74, Alexian Brothers' Hospital; nephritis.
Mrs. Elizabeth Walter, 73, Good Samaritan Hospital; asthma.
John Kalinster, 21, 1426 North Twenty-first street; tuberculosis.

John F. Rowe, 37, 1303 St. Ange avenue; scule lephritis.
Charles Long, 48 days, 2601 North Ninth street;
narcosis.
Estella Hoesmann, 6 months, 2504A University street; debility.
Frank Huber, 23, 1534 North Sixteenth street;
tuberculosis.

James Howard, 56, 1805 Locust street; anile leblity.
Charles Mesnier, 72, 3015 Wisconsin avenue, valvular disease of heart.
Frederick Kasden, 7 months, 3508 Palm street;
gastro-enteritis.
Geo. Busch, 40, City Hospital; emphysema-pulmonalis.
John Schaefer, 28, City Hospital; dysentery.

Martha Stewart, 55, 1910 North Furman street; uremia.
Clarence Farrell, 2, 4229 John avenue; diphthertic croup.
Fannie Wilson, 26, 4257 Lee avenue; phthisis pulmonalis.
Hanna Stephen, 70, 3617 North Ninth street;
cervicitis.
Max Ruth Knoll, 6 weeks, 5627 Cote Brilliante avenue; pneumonia.

Albert C. Waer, 61, 815 Choujean avenue; pneumonia.
Annie Toman, 73, 2109 Menard street; chronic gastritis.
Joseph Grellner, 23, 3022 South Eleventh street;
typho-malaria.

DEATH NOTICES

GLEASON—Michael, beloved husband of Ann Gleason and father of John, Willard, Thomas, Nellie and Mrs. C. C. Gallagher.

Funeral from the family residence, 315
Warr avenue, Monday morning, at 9 o'clock, to St. Xavier's Church, thence to Calvary Cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

Deceased was a member of American Legion of Honor, De Soto Council.

KILCON—On Friday, Nov. 20, at 11:30 p. m., Mary Kilcon, daughter of Anthony and Mary McDonald Kilcon, aged 3 years and 3 months.

Funeral will take place from residence, 2121 Division street, to Calvary Cemetery, at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, Nov. 21.

MESNTER—Mr. Charles Mesnier, beloved husband of Caroline Mesnier (nee Maritz), Saturday, Nov. 21, at 8 a. m., aged 72 years.
Funeral from family residence, 2018

Wisconsin avenue, St. Louis, Mo., Sunday, Nov. 25, at 2 p. m. Friends of the family invited to attend.
Please omit flowers.
Sioux City (Ia.), Keokuk (Ia.), Little Rock (Ark.) and Memphis (Tenn.) papers please copy.

ROWE—Friday, Nov. 21. John P. Rowe, aged 27 years, beloved husband of Anna Rowe (nee Wohn).
Funeral Sunday, at 3 p. m., from residence, 1123 St. Ange avenue, to Bellefontaine Cemetery. Deceased was a member of the Legion of Honor, No. 1.

SCHIEBLE—On Saturday, Nov. 21, at 1:15 A. M., Mary Eva Schieble (nee Lenhardt), wife of the late Caspar Schieble, and mother of Mrs. Mary Fuesler, Mrs. Carl Funeral will take place from family residence, 1328 North Nineteenth street, Monday, at 1:30 p. m., to St. Joseph's church, to Calvary cemetery.

Santiago (Cal), Quincy (Ill.) and Chicago (Ill) papers please omit.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
PUBLISHED BY THE PULITZER PUBLISHING CO.
Founded by JOSEPH PULITZER.
CHARLES H. JONES,
Editor and Manager.
Office 513 Olive Street.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
BY CARRIER, ST. LOUIS AND SUBURBS
Daily and Sunday—Per Week.....10 Cents
Daily and Sunday—Per Month.....45 Cents
Sunday—Per Month.....20 Cents
BY MAIL—IN ADVANCE.
Daily and Sunday—Per Annum.....$6 00
Daily and Sunday—Per 6 Months.....$3 00
Daily and Sunday—Per 3 Months.....$1 50
Sunday—Per 6 Months.....$2 00
Sunday—Per 3 Months.....$1 00
Weekly—One Year.....50 Cents

Daily and Sunday, by carrier, in towns outside of St. Louis, 15 cents a week, 60 cents a month. Week days only 10 cents a week.
Remit by money order, draft, or in registered letters. Don't send checks on your local bank. The price of the Post-Dispatch on all railroad trains and in all railroad stations outside of St. Louis will be 5 CENTS per copy daily and 3 CENTS Sunday. Any one who is charged a higher rate than this will please report same to us, giving name of road or station and number of train.
Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor by reporting the same to this office.
Address all communications to POST-DISPATCH, St. Louis.

Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis as second class matter.
Postmaster: J. H. Jones.
Business Office.....513 Olive Street.
Editorial Office.....513 Olive Street.
Telephone Numbers.....
THE S. C. Beckwith Special Agency,
Agent General Advertising,
414 Broadway, New York, and 49 The Bookery, Chicago.

LIKE THE ROCK OF GIBRALTAR STANDS THE
CITY CIRCULATION
OF THE
POST-DISPATCH.
First of All
THE
NEWS MASSIVE FIRM.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.
OLYMPIA—"Miss Sam's Glee."
CENTURY—"The."
FOURTEENTH STREET—"De Erie."
HAGAN—"Charley's Aunt."
HAYLINS—"On the Bowery."
STANDARD—Sam Brown's Own Company.
HOPKINS'—Continued—"Roadside."

POLITICAL PROSCRIPTION.
The Springfield (Mass.) Republican, one of the ablest of the gold standard newspapers, devotes a few sharp and trenchant sentences to exposing the ill-conceived and ill-considered character of a recent utterance of the Globe-Democrat. The editorial quoted from the Globe-Democrat was in part as follows:
"In the three States where women voted for President the aggregate majority for Bryan and the Chicago platform was not less than 140,000. * * * This is the record woman suffrage has made for itself in the Presidential election of 1896, and upon which it will be justly judged when a further extension is asked for."
The Republican points out that this is equivalent to saying that the right to exercise the franchise should be made dependent upon the manner in which those to whom the privilege is accorded vote on a particular question. The Globe-Democrat's proposition is that if the women in the three States referred to had voted for gold, that should have been accepted as proof that they are qualified to cast the ballot. As it seems evident that they voted for silver, that is to be taken as proof that they are not qualified to cast a ballot, assuming that the same standard of qualification should apply to men as to women, this logic would justify the disfranchisement of the 5,000,000 men who voted for Bryan and free silver.

The Republican points out that the only way to satisfy people who talk in this way is to stop popular elections altogether. A select few should do the voting; or, in order to save the trouble and expense and "disturbance to business," of a general election the select few should do the ruling without bothering the people. In other words, the Globe-Democrat's logic leads to the total abolition of popular government and the substitution of an autocracy, or at the best of an oligarchy.

All this is perfectly true. The only defect in the Republican's comment is that it takes the Globe-Democrat seriously. It does this because it is a thousand miles away. Nobody in its neighborhood expects to find in a Globe-Democrat editorial any logic, or common sense, or Americanism, or serious conviction of any kind based upon knowledge. Its editorials are for the most part, like the one commented upon by the Republican, "the veriest words that ever fooled the ear from out the schoolmaster's jargon."

IT WILL SETTLE ITSELF.
The propositions of the Indians of the Five Tribes under which they propose to accept allotment as preliminary to Statehood or Territorial government, are evidently made with a view to concession. They have made the claims large enough to allow for a good deal of shrinkage.

Under the plan they propose it would cost the Government from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 to organize them and the whites on their lands as a Territory. The game is not worth the candle. Such a price should only be paid, if at all, for the forming of one State between Kansas and Texas. Such a State might be worth the money it would cost under the Indian plan.

But the Five Tribes insist that in addition to the millions paid them for allotment they are never to be merged with Oklahoma either as a Territory or as a State.

This opens the way to decisive action. We should respect our treaty with the Indians so long as they insist upon them. The erection of a State in Oklahoma will mean Statehood in the Tribes within a few years, for a Territory could not long exist surrounded by growing States, and certainly tribal government could not stand such a test.

Make a State of Oklahoma and before the close of the century the Tribes will be asking for Statehood, either independently or by absorption into Arkansas or Texas.

THE WAR LORD'S PAUSE.
The Continental army officer is offensive everywhere, but he seems to be particularly so in Germany and, especially in Russia, where the spirit of the "War Lord" is more rampant than in any other country. In Russia the people worship the Great White Czar. In Germany it is the "War Lord" who arouses their patriotic fervor.

But the "War Lord" has strained the patience and endurance even of a military people, when he excuses the sabering of a workman in a restaurant because he happened to brush against an officer's chair. Every civilian son of the Fatherland realizes that it may be his turn to be sabered.

That is why the Brusewitz incident has aroused such a storm. The release of Lieut. Brusewitz from all punishment, after such a light sentence had been imposed, outrages the public sense of justice. Brusewitz is probably regarded as a murderer, and his fellow officers cannot afford to defend his crime. The Emperor himself, who has attempted it, veils his real meaning in vague phrases.

Even the German "War Lord" can sometimes ride too hard and too far.

THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.
To-morrow's Sunday Post-Dispatch will be full of interesting reading matter and beautiful pictures, from the title page to the last page of the Magazine. It will have no rival in the field of Sunday newspaperdom this side of New York.

The prize offer of $100 to the first subscriber who correctly names President-elect McKinley's Cabinet has taken like the proverbial hot cakes, and guesses by the hundreds are coming in daily from all over the country. The competition is open until Feb. 15, but it should be remembered that the first correct guess takes the money.

Beginning with to-morrow another new feature will be added in the shape of an offer, by special arrangement with the Home University of St. Louis, of a three months' course of home instruction by mail at a greatly reduced rate, in any course selected. Read the announcement in Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and Sunday's issue will contain a number of reasonable features.

Attention is called to the following partial list of what is in store for our readers:
Thanksgiving in the Old Homestead—A superb half-page picture by Russell showing how the festival day is observed down on the farm.

Thanksgiving Day, Past and Present—The day as it was observed by our New England forefathers, and by modern society, contrasted.

The Bachelor Girl's Thanksgiving Revel—A charmingly illustrated poem by Willis L. Clannahan, the Post-Dispatch poet, in his happiest vein. Illustrated by Russell.

A Thanksgiving Episode in the Far West—An episode in the career of the "Ring-tailed Squealer" in the days when the cowboy was in his glory. Illustrated.

A Thanksgiving Song—An original composition, with music, by a clever St. Louis composer.

In the Toney County Preserves—A description of the hunting grounds where W. J. Bryan and other notables were reconnoitering after the late campaign, with illustrations by Russell.

The Old People's Home—Where those who have outlived their kindred patiently await the final summons. Illustrated.

De Koven's Chinese Fete—Unique entertainment to be given by the popular composer of "Robin Hood" to his friends.

Wood Chopping for a Husband—The novel contest entered into by six muscular women for a matrimonial prize. Illustrated.

His Fifth Time on Earth—A boy who claims to remember four former existences, dating back to the Norman Conquest, and substantiating the theories of Theosophy.

How Two Men Fought an Ironclad—A mystery of the war unraveled by the story of the sole survivor, a former sharpshooter.

Rivals Gabriel's Best Efforts—How a Frenchwoman convicted of murder on the strongest circumstantial evidence was proved innocent after serving six years of a life sentence.

years, for a Territory could not long exist surrounded by growing States, and certainly tribal government could not stand such a test.

Make a State of Oklahoma and before the close of the century the Tribes will be asking for Statehood, either independently or by absorption into Arkansas or Texas.

THE WAR LORD'S PAUSE.
The Continental army officer is offensive everywhere, but he seems to be particularly so in Germany and, especially in Russia, where the spirit of the "War Lord" is more rampant than in any other country. In Russia the people worship the Great White Czar. In Germany it is the "War Lord" who arouses their patriotic fervor.

But the "War Lord" has strained the patience and endurance even of a military people, when he excuses the sabering of a workman in a restaurant because he happened to brush against an officer's chair. Every civilian son of the Fatherland realizes that it may be his turn to be sabered.

That is why the Brusewitz incident has aroused such a storm. The release of Lieut. Brusewitz from all punishment, after such a light sentence had been imposed, outrages the public sense of justice. Brusewitz is probably regarded as a murderer, and his fellow officers cannot afford to defend his crime. The Emperor himself, who has attempted it, veils his real meaning in vague phrases.

Even the German "War Lord" can sometimes ride too hard and too far.

THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.
To-morrow's Sunday Post-Dispatch will be full of interesting reading matter and beautiful pictures, from the title page to the last page of the Magazine. It will have no rival in the field of Sunday newspaperdom this side of New York.

The prize offer of $100 to the first subscriber who correctly names President-elect McKinley's Cabinet has taken like the proverbial hot cakes, and guesses by the hundreds are coming in daily from all over the country. The competition is open until Feb. 15, but it should be remembered that the first correct guess takes the money.

Beginning with to-morrow another new feature will be added in the shape of an offer, by special arrangement with the Home University of St. Louis, of a three months' course of home instruction by mail at a greatly reduced rate, in any course selected. Read the announcement in Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and Sunday's issue will contain a number of reasonable features.

Attention is called to the following partial list of what is in store for our readers:
Thanksgiving in the Old Homestead—A superb half-page picture by Russell showing how the festival day is observed down on the farm.

Thanksgiving Day, Past and Present—The day as it was observed by our New England forefathers, and by modern society, contrasted.

The Bachelor Girl's Thanksgiving Revel—A charmingly illustrated poem by Willis L. Clannahan, the Post-Dispatch poet, in his happiest vein. Illustrated by Russell.

A Thanksgiving Episode in the Far West—An episode in the career of the "Ring-tailed Squealer" in the days when the cowboy was in his glory. Illustrated.

A Thanksgiving Song—An original composition, with music, by a clever St. Louis composer.

In the Toney County Preserves—A description of the hunting grounds where W. J. Bryan and other notables were reconnoitering after the late campaign, with illustrations by Russell.

The Old People's Home—Where those who have outlived their kindred patiently await the final summons. Illustrated.

De Koven's Chinese Fete—Unique entertainment to be given by the popular composer of "Robin Hood" to his friends.

Wood Chopping for a Husband—The novel contest entered into by six muscular women for a matrimonial prize. Illustrated.

His Fifth Time on Earth—A boy who claims to remember four former existences, dating back to the Norman Conquest, and substantiating the theories of Theosophy.

How Two Men Fought an Ironclad—A mystery of the war unraveled by the story of the sole survivor, a former sharpshooter.

Rivals Gabriel's Best Efforts—How a Frenchwoman convicted of murder on the strongest circumstantial evidence was proved innocent after serving six years of a life sentence.

years, for a Territory could not long exist surrounded by growing States, and certainly tribal government could not stand such a test.

Make a State of Oklahoma and before the close of the century the Tribes will be asking for Statehood, either independently or by absorption into Arkansas or Texas.

THE WAR LORD'S PAUSE.
The Continental army officer is offensive everywhere, but he seems to be particularly so in Germany and, especially in Russia, where the spirit of the "War Lord" is more rampant than in any other country. In Russia the people worship the Great White Czar. In Germany it is the "War Lord" who arouses their patriotic fervor.

But the "War Lord" has strained the patience and endurance even of a military people, when he excuses the sabering of a workman in a restaurant because he happened to brush against an officer's chair. Every civilian son of the Fatherland realizes that it may be his turn to be sabered.

That is why the Brusewitz incident has aroused such a storm. The release of Lieut. Brusewitz from all punishment, after such a light sentence had been imposed, outrages the public sense of justice. Brusewitz is probably regarded as a murderer, and his fellow officers cannot afford to defend his crime. The Emperor himself, who has attempted it, veils his real meaning in vague phrases.

Even the German "War Lord" can sometimes ride too hard and too far.

THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.
To-morrow's Sunday Post-Dispatch will be full of interesting reading matter and beautiful pictures, from the title page to the last page of the Magazine. It will have no rival in the field of Sunday newspaperdom this side of New York.

The prize offer of $100 to the first subscriber who correctly names President-elect McKinley's Cabinet has taken like the proverbial hot cakes, and guesses by the hundreds are coming in daily from all over the country. The competition is open until Feb. 15, but it should be remembered that the first correct guess takes the money.

Beginning with to-morrow another new feature will be added in the shape of an offer, by special arrangement with the Home University of St. Louis, of a three months' course of home instruction by mail at a greatly reduced rate, in any course selected. Read the announcement in Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and Sunday's issue will contain a number of reasonable features.

Attention is called to the following partial list of what is in store for our readers:
Thanksgiving in the Old Homestead—A superb half-page picture by Russell showing how the festival day is observed down on the farm.

Thanksgiving Day, Past and Present—The day as it was observed by our New England forefathers, and by modern society, contrasted.

The Bachelor Girl's Thanksgiving Revel—A charmingly illustrated poem by Willis L. Clannahan, the Post-Dispatch poet, in his happiest vein. Illustrated by Russell.

A Thanksgiving Episode in the Far West—An episode in the career of the "Ring-tailed Squealer" in the days when the cowboy was in his glory. Illustrated.

A Thanksgiving Song—An original composition, with music, by a clever St. Louis composer.

In the Toney County Preserves—A description of the hunting grounds where W. J. Bryan and other notables were reconnoitering after the late campaign, with illustrations by Russell.

The Old People's Home—Where those who have outlived their kindred patiently await the final summons. Illustrated.

De Koven's Chinese Fete—Unique entertainment to be given by the popular composer of "Robin Hood" to his friends.

Wood Chopping for a Husband—The novel contest entered into by six muscular women for a matrimonial prize. Illustrated.

His Fifth Time on Earth—A boy who claims to remember four former existences, dating back to the Norman Conquest, and substantiating the theories of Theosophy.

How Two Men Fought an Ironclad—A mystery of the war unraveled by the story of the sole survivor, a former sharpshooter.

Rivals Gabriel's Best Efforts—How a Frenchwoman convicted of murder on the strongest circumstantial evidence was proved innocent after serving six years of a life sentence.

years, for a Territory could not long exist surrounded by growing States, and certainly tribal government could not stand such a test.

Make a State of Oklahoma and before the close of the century the Tribes will be asking for Statehood, either independently or by absorption into Arkansas or Texas.

THE WAR LORD'S PAUSE.
The Continental army officer is offensive everywhere, but he seems to be particularly so in Germany and, especially in Russia, where the spirit of the "War Lord" is more rampant than in any other country. In Russia the people worship the Great White Czar. In Germany it is the "War Lord" who arouses their patriotic fervor.

But the "War Lord" has strained the patience and endurance even of a military people, when he excuses the sabering of a workman in a restaurant because he happened to brush against an officer's chair. Every civilian son of the Fatherland realizes that it may be his turn to be sabered.

That is why the Brusewitz incident has aroused such a storm. The release of Lieut. Brusewitz from all punishment, after such a light sentence had been imposed, outrages the public sense of justice. Brusewitz is probably regarded as a murderer, and his fellow officers cannot afford to defend his crime. The Emperor himself, who has attempted it, veils his real meaning in vague phrases.

Even the German "War Lord" can sometimes ride too hard and too far.

THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.
To-morrow's Sunday Post-Dispatch will be full of interesting reading matter and beautiful pictures, from the title page to the last page of the Magazine. It will have no rival in the field of Sunday newspaperdom this side of New York.

The prize offer of $100 to the first subscriber who correctly names President-elect McKinley's Cabinet has taken like the proverbial hot cakes, and guesses by the hundreds are coming in daily from all over the country. The competition is open until Feb. 15, but it should be remembered that the first correct guess takes the money.

Beginning with to-morrow another new feature will be added in the shape of an offer, by special arrangement with the Home University of St. Louis, of a three months' course of home instruction by mail at a greatly reduced rate, in any course selected. Read the announcement in Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and Sunday's issue will contain a number of reasonable features.

Attention is called to the following partial list of what is in store for our readers:
Thanksgiving in the Old Homestead—A superb half-page picture by Russell showing how the festival day is observed down on the farm.

Thanksgiving Day, Past and Present—The day as it was observed by our New England forefathers, and by modern society, contrasted.

The Bachelor Girl's Thanksgiving Revel—A charmingly illustrated poem by Willis L. Clannahan, the Post-Dispatch poet, in his happiest vein. Illustrated by Russell.

A Thanksgiving Episode in the Far West—An episode in the career of the "Ring-tailed Squealer" in the days when the cowboy was in his glory. Illustrated.

A Thanksgiving Song—An original composition, with music, by a clever St. Louis composer.

In the Toney County Preserves—A description of the hunting grounds where W. J. Bryan and other notables were reconnoitering after the late campaign, with illustrations by Russell.

The Old People's Home—Where those who have outlived their kindred patiently await the final summons. Illustrated.

De Koven's Chinese Fete—Unique entertainment to be given by the popular composer of "Robin Hood" to his friends.

Wood Chopping for a Husband—The novel contest entered into by six muscular women for a matrimonial prize. Illustrated.

His Fifth Time on Earth—A boy who claims to remember four former existences, dating back to the Norman Conquest, and substantiating the theories of Theosophy.

How Two Men Fought an Ironclad—A mystery of the war unraveled by the story of the sole survivor, a former sharpshooter.

Rivals Gabriel's Best Efforts—How a Frenchwoman convicted of murder on the strongest circumstantial evidence was proved innocent after serving six years of a life sentence.

years, for a Territory could not long exist surrounded by growing States, and certainly tribal government could not stand such a test.

Make a State of Oklahoma and before the close of the century the Tribes will be asking for Statehood, either independently or by absorption into Arkansas or Texas.

THE WAR LORD'S PAUSE.
The Continental army officer is offensive everywhere, but he seems to be particularly so in Germany and, especially in Russia, where the spirit of the "War Lord" is more rampant than in any other country. In Russia the people worship the Great White Czar. In Germany it is the "War Lord" who arouses their patriotic fervor.

But the "War Lord" has strained the patience and endurance even of a military people, when he excuses the sabering of a workman in a restaurant because he happened to brush against an officer's chair. Every civilian son of the Fatherland realizes that it may be his turn to be sabered.

That is why the Brusewitz incident has aroused such a storm. The release of Lieut. Brusewitz from all punishment, after such a light sentence had been imposed, outrages the public sense of justice. Brusewitz is probably regarded as a murderer, and his fellow officers cannot afford to defend his crime. The Emperor himself, who has attempted it, veils his real meaning in vague phrases.

Even the German "War Lord" can sometimes ride too hard and too far.

THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.
To-morrow's Sunday Post-Dispatch will be full of interesting reading matter and beautiful pictures, from the title page to the last page of the Magazine. It will have no rival in the field of Sunday newspaperdom this side of New York.

The prize offer of $100 to the first subscriber who correctly names President-elect McKinley's Cabinet has taken like the proverbial hot cakes, and guesses by the hundreds are coming in daily from all over the country. The competition is open until Feb. 15, but it should be remembered that the first correct guess takes the money.

Beginning with to-morrow another new feature will be added in the shape of an offer, by special arrangement with the Home University of St. Louis, of a three months' course of home instruction by mail at a greatly reduced rate, in any course selected. Read the announcement in Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and Sunday's issue will contain a number of reasonable features.

Attention is called to the following partial list of what is in store for our readers:
Thanksgiving in the Old Homestead—A superb half-page picture by Russell showing how the festival day is observed down on the farm.

Thanksgiving Day, Past and Present—The day as it was observed by our New England forefathers, and by modern society, contrasted.

The Bachelor Girl's Thanksgiving Revel—A charmingly illustrated poem by Willis L. Clannahan, the Post-Dispatch poet, in his happiest vein. Illustrated by Russell.

A Thanksgiving Episode in the Far West—An episode in the career of the "Ring-tailed Squealer" in the days when the cowboy was in his glory. Illustrated.

A Thanksgiving Song—An original composition, with music, by a clever St. Louis composer.

In the Toney County Preserves—A description of the hunting grounds where W. J. Bryan and other notables were reconnoitering after the late campaign, with illustrations by Russell.

The Old People's Home—Where those who have outlived their kindred patiently await the final summons. Illustrated.

De Koven's Chinese Fete—Unique entertainment to be given by the popular composer of "Robin Hood" to his friends.

Wood Chopping for a Husband—The novel contest entered into by six muscular women for a matrimonial prize. Illustrated.

His Fifth Time on Earth—A boy who claims to remember four former existences, dating back to the Norman Conquest, and substantiating the theories of Theosophy.

How Two Men Fought an Ironclad—A mystery of the war unraveled by the story of the sole survivor, a former sharpshooter.

Rivals Gabriel's Best Efforts—How a Frenchwoman convicted of murder on the strongest circumstantial evidence was proved innocent after serving six years of a life sentence.

years, for a Territory could not long exist surrounded by growing States, and certainly tribal government could not stand such a test.

Make a State of Oklahoma and before the close of the century the Tribes will be asking for Statehood, either independently or by absorption into Arkansas or Texas.

THE WAR LORD'S PAUSE.
The Continental army officer is offensive everywhere, but he seems to be particularly so in Germany and, especially in Russia, where the spirit of the "War Lord" is more rampant than in any other country. In Russia the people worship the Great White Czar. In Germany it is the "War Lord" who arouses their patriotic fervor.

But the "War Lord" has strained the patience and endurance even of a military people, when he excuses the sabering of a workman in a restaurant because he happened to brush against an officer's chair. Every civilian son of the Fatherland realizes that it may be his turn to be sabered.

That is why the Brusewitz incident has aroused such a storm. The release of Lieut. Brusewitz from all punishment, after such a light sentence had been imposed, outrages the public sense of justice. Brusewitz is probably regarded as a murderer, and his fellow officers cannot afford to defend his crime. The Emperor himself, who has attempted it, veils his real meaning in vague phrases.

Even the German "War Lord" can sometimes ride too hard and too far.

THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.
To-morrow's Sunday Post-Dispatch will be full of interesting reading matter and beautiful pictures, from the title page to the last page of the Magazine. It will have no rival in the field of Sunday newspaperdom this side of New York.

The prize offer of $100 to the first subscriber who correctly names President-elect McKinley's Cabinet has taken like the proverbial hot cakes, and guesses by the hundreds are coming in daily from all over the country. The competition is open until Feb. 15, but it should be remembered that the first correct guess takes the money.

Beginning with to-morrow another new feature will be added in the shape of an offer, by special arrangement with the Home University of St. Louis, of a three months' course of home instruction by mail at a greatly reduced rate, in any course selected. Read the announcement in Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and Sunday's issue will contain a number of reasonable features.

Attention is called to the following partial list of what is in store for our readers:
Thanksgiving in the Old Homestead—A superb half-page picture by Russell showing how the festival day is observed down on the farm.

Thanksgiving Day, Past and Present—The day as it was observed by our New England forefathers, and by modern society, contrasted.

The Bachelor Girl's Thanksgiving Revel—A charmingly illustrated poem by Willis L. Clannahan, the Post-Dispatch poet, in his happiest vein. Illustrated by Russell.

A Thanksgiving Episode in the Far West—An episode in the career of the "Ring-tailed Squealer" in the days when the cowboy was in his glory. Illustrated.

A Thanksgiving Song—An original composition, with music, by a clever St. Louis composer.

In the Toney County Preserves—A description of the hunting grounds where W. J. Bryan and other notables were reconnoitering after the late campaign, with illustrations by Russell.

The Old People's Home—Where those who have outlived their kindred patiently await the final summons. Illustrated.

De Koven's Chinese Fete—Unique entertainment to be given by the popular composer of "Robin Hood" to his friends.

Wood Chopping for a Husband—The novel contest entered into by six muscular women for a matrimonial prize. Illustrated.

His Fifth Time on Earth—A boy who claims to remember four former existences, dating back to the Norman Conquest, and substantiating the theories of Theosophy.

How Two Men Fought an Ironclad—A mystery of the war unraveled by the story of the sole survivor, a former sharpshooter.

Rivals Gabriel's Best Efforts—How a Frenchwoman convicted of murder on the strongest circumstantial evidence was proved innocent after serving six years of a life sentence.

years, for a Territory could not long exist surrounded by growing States, and certainly tribal government could not stand such a test.

Make a State of Oklahoma and before the close of the century the Tribes will be asking for Statehood, either independently or by absorption into Arkansas or Texas.

THE WAR LORD'S PAUSE.
The Continental army officer is offensive everywhere, but he seems to be particularly so in Germany and, especially in Russia, where the spirit of the "War Lord" is more rampant than in any other country. In Russia the people worship the Great White Czar. In Germany it is the "War Lord" who arouses their patriotic fervor.

But the "War Lord" has strained the patience and endurance even of a military people, when he excuses the sabering of a workman in a restaurant because he happened to brush against an officer's chair. Every civilian son of the Fatherland realizes that it may be his turn to be sabered.

That is why the Brusewitz incident has aroused such a storm. The release of Lieut. Brusewitz from all punishment, after such a light sentence had been imposed, outrages the public sense of justice. Brusewitz is probably regarded as a murderer, and his fellow officers cannot

EMPLOYMENT GROUPING.

The Real and Make-Believe.

Here is Mark Hanna as he is to-day and as he was pictured during the campaign. They say he's to be the next Secretary of the Treasury.

Real...
Want Ads
ARE FOUND
BELOW.

The Make-Believe
Are in the Other Mediums.

Any Drug Store in St. Louis is authorized to receive Advertisements and Subscriptions for the Post-Dispatch has three special telephone numbers exclusively for handling this business.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

20 words or less, 5c.

BOOKKEEPER—Of long experience, thoroughly competent, wants situation as bookkeeper or any kind of office work; country preferred; references. Ad. M 30, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—A bookkeeper wants position tending bar; 5 years' experience; best references. Ad. N 90, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Thoroughly competent bookkeeper, 8 years' experience, wants situation; best references; bond if required. T. S. Andrews, 311 N. Main st.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, situation as cookman by German, understands his business; furnace, car, milk; city references. Ad. H 92, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, situation as grocery clerk or to drive delivery wagon by a young man of 19; references. J. Swartz, 2721 Irving st.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, situation as cook by man, Ad. N 95, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, by a stout young man, employment as carpenter. Call or write Joe Webb, 2409 S. Jefferson av.

BOOKKEEPER—Grocery clerk work for board and small salary; will furnish best of reference. Ad. N 92, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, situation; relief work evenings, Sundays or during holidays; by registered drug clerk; speaks German; Ad. Peter Beckman, care Barnes Medical College.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position by married man to drive grocery wagon; well experienced; with references. Add. T. S. 1548 Division st.

BOOKKEEPER—First-class gardener wants work in private gardens by the day or week; will work cheap; send postal or call. Ad. H. P. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position where there is a chance to work up; wages no object. Ad. Paul B. Hall, Exchange Building.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with some wholesale house; wages no object. Ad. Paul, 2008 North Market.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, situation by young man of 21 years with 3 years' experience in grocery and saloon; Ad. B 91, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, situation in factory or warehouse; Ad. O 94, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, steady and strictly temperate, good trader, would like situation in office; best references. Ad. L 90, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—No. 1 all-round man wants situation in large store or factory; best references. Ad. B 90, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Cash to any one procuring me situation; well equipped with street car; give security if necessary. Ad. R 83, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Painter, glazier and grainer wants work by job; will work cheap; good guaranteed. Ad. H. P. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Painter, experienced young man and sober, wishes work for winter; will do other work if required; very reasonable wages. Ad. N 90, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, situation as porter in factory, warehouse or store by a steady man of good habits; Ad. O 95, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Experienced young man, stenographer, understands bookkeeping and desires of being generally useful; solicits employment; references. Ad. M 88, this office.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position to do; will do any work, ceilings and walls with good or for 20c. Add. A. Price, No. 3116, special rates.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

BOOKKEEPER—Wanted, position with competent, well-educated lady. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

20 words or less, 5c.

COMPANION—Refined young lady desires position as companion to lady; is a musician; handy with needle; no objections to travel. Ad. G 96, this office.

COOK—A lady would like a situation in small, private family to cook and do housework; a home more desired than wages. Please answer at once. Ad. E 83, this office.

COMPANION—Wanted, by a lady of education and refinement, position as companion, governess or housekeeper; fully capable and experienced; best references. Ad. B 94, this office.

GIRL—Wanted, by an educated, refined, modest Christian girl of 17 years, a place in a nice family to teach children and do sewing. Ad. W 85, this office.

GOVERNESS—Refined, educated young lady wishes position as governess; English branches; music; references. Ad. P 96, this office.

HOUSEGIRL—Wanted, situation by neat colored girl, good housekeeper, 25 years old.

HOUSEGIRL—Wanted, situation by colored girl for general housework. 2728 Morgan st.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, situation as housekeeper by widow lady; no objection to children. Ad. 2918 Market st.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, situation by middle-aged woman as housekeeper for respectable widow. Ad. In care of Mrs. Wahl, 1906 Cherokee st.

HOUSEGIRL—Wanted, situation by German girl for general housework. 3237 Texas av.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, situation by a young widow, modest and respectable, to keep house for widower; can give references. Ad. R. Strecker, 226 W. Courtland st.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, situation as housekeeper for widower or bachelor. Ad. A 94, this office.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, situation as housekeeper for widower or bachelor. Ad. A 94, this office.

HOUSEGIRL—Nice, quiet country girl wants light housework or general work in small family. 6225 St. Louis st.

HOUSEKEEPER—Wanted, by young widow, situation to keep house for bachelor or widower. 924 N. 15th st.

HOUSEGIRL—Wanted, situation by a German girl to do general housework; good experience and references. 924 N. 15th st.

HOUSEGIRL—Wanted, situation as housegirl. 3978 Barry av.

LAUNDRESS—A reliable laundress wants family or gent's washing to take home; good refs. 114 S. Leonard av.

LADY—An elderly German lady wants a place with some respectable old gentleman or small widow; splendid cook. Add. 4427 St. Louis av.

LAUNDRESS—White, rough-dried clothes only, to take home; guaranteed satisfactory. 4324 North Market st.

NURSE—Would like to have the care of child 12 months old. Mrs. Stephens, 1233 N. 12th st.

NURSE—Wanted, situation by a young widow to nurse sick child; references. Ad. R. Strecker, 226 W. Courtland st.

SEAMSTRESS—First-class seamstress desires sewing in private family; children's work a specialty. Ad. 2011 Chestnut st.

STENOGRAPHER—Wanted, situation as stenographer by educated young lady; willing to do general housework; without references required. Ad. P. H. O. Weston.

WOMAN—Wanted, situation by a young woman for general housework; without references; can cook; can give references. Ad. R. Strecker, 226 W. Courtland st.

WANTED—Chaplains to address by a plain, rapid writer writing 1,000 a day. Ad. N 82, this office.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

WET NURSE—Wanted, situation by healthy wet nurse; fresh milk. 304 S. 10th st.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

14 words or less, 10c.

PAINTERS—Three; three; highly recommended; B. S. Clean and silver, brass, copper and Butcher's Furniture Polish, mended. Send address. The Butler Company, 2621 Olive st., St. Louis.

WET NURSE—Wanted, a wet nurse, strong and healthy. 1510 N. Grand, second floor.

WOMAN—Wanted—Experienced woman with references. 1830 N. 10th st.

AGENTS—Wanted. 14 words or less, 20c.

AGENTS—Wanted—State and local agents, male and female; those having had sufficient experience to warrant their taking charge of large territory will do well to address us at once; we are in a position to suit almost any agent; we have territory and terms; a modern and taking plan; sick and death benefits; write for terms. Union Beneficial Association, Ribsam Building, Trenton, N. J.

LOST AND FOUND. 14 words or less, 10c.

Lost.

DOG—Lost, white fox terrier, black and tan face. Finder will be rewarded for returning to 3504 Lafayette; no questions asked. 3504 Lafayette.

DOG—Lost, black and white Scotch terrier dog; short tail. Return to 4148 Wyoming and get reward.

GUN—Lost, gun, 2000 Remington, at cor. Jefferson and Russell av. Reward from Henry A. Joffe, 2000 Remington.

POCKETBOOK—Lost, pocketbook, between Christian and St. Louis, a place in a nice family to teach children and do sewing. Ad. W 85, this office.

STAMPS—Lost, package of tobacco stamps. Suitable reward paid for their return to 108 S. 10th st.

$25 REWARD for the recovery of the body of Miss Pauline Bauer, missing since Friday, Nov. 19th, foot of North Market st. Ad. 601 All information to F. O. Bauer, 1711 N. 10th st.

THEATRICAL. 14 words or less, 20c.

HASHAN BROS. Up-to-date Dancing Academy, School of Comedy and Dramatic Art. 3300 Easton st.; pupils prepared for the stage.

BUSINESS FOR SALE. 14 words or less, 20c.

BOARDING-HOUSE—For sale, boarding and rooming house, convenient to Union Station. 2004 R. 10th st.

BUSINESS—For sale, express and delivery business; well established wholesale trade; entire outfit, 1000, 91 Franklin av.

LUNCH STAND—For sale, lunch stand; good business. Apply southeast cor. 21st and Chestnut.

MUSICAL. 14 words or less, 20c.

INSTRUCTION—Wanted, piano pupils by experienced teacher; good references; reasonable; all grades taught. 1118 Olive st.

MANDOLIN, banjo, guitar to take home for 50c and 20c monthly rent. 2800 Olive st.

NEW plans for rent. We allow a year's rent to apply on purchase and we do not charge any more for the plan on account of this arrangement. O. A. Field Piano Co., 1008 Olive st.

PIANOS, organs; low prices; easy terms; pianos rented and tuned. The Kester Co., 910 Olive st.

SOMEBODY is going to get a rare bargain in a baby grand Krantz & Co. piano. It is just as good as new, and shows no wear. Just go down and look at it and ask the price. O. A. Field Piano Co., 1008 Olive st.

We have one elegant upright piano, but slightly used, that we will sell at $5 per month. It is a high-grade piano. O. A. Field Piano Co., 1008 Olive st.

HORSES AND VEHICLES. 14 words or less, 20c.

Wanted.

HORSES to winter at reasonable rates; good feed; for further information call at 1220 S. Broadway, Dr. Vavrie.

HORSES wintered on Manchester road, three miles from city; reasonable terms. D. Lindsey, Windsor, Mo.

PASTURE—Wanted, horses to winter; terms reasonable; horses called for and returned without charge. Inquire of Robert Sargent, Valley Park, St. Louis County, Mo.

For Sale.

HORSES wintered at Pat's stock farm; box stalls. R. S. Wash, Bates, North St. Louis.

</

MISS BARBEE IN THE LIBRARY.

WILL WRINKLE HER BROWS
OVER DRY AS DUST TOMES.

OLD STAGERS ARE AGHAST.

The Handsome Young Portia Is Backed by One of the Foremost Members of the Bar.

Even Miss Phoebe Cousins, while practicing law in St. Louis, never became a member of the St. Louis Law Library.

But Miss Daisy D. Barbee, the first woman lawyer to appear in the St. Louis Circuit Court since Miss Cousins' time, has already declared that she does not intend to tread in Miss Cousins' footsteps.

Miss Barbee made her declaration good Friday afternoon by applying for membership in the library.

The latest and most attractive acquisition to the St. Louis bar made her appearance in the library, at the Court-house, at about 3 o'clock. There were a number of dignified and gray-haired luminaries there, poring over legal lore, and some younger ones.

The law library is a place never before invaded by femininity. The nearest it ever came to it was when Miss Merta Mitchell applied for membership. Her application reached the library by mail. Although Miss Mitchell was admitted she was taken ill directly after, and the law library never knew her charming presence because her health forced her to temporarily retire from practice. She will probably resume it in the spring.

So there is no wonder that the apparition of Friday afternoon caused some surprise. The older lawyers glanced at Miss Barbee in amazement, then regretfully turned their eyes back to the dry pages they had been perusing. The younger ones looked up and kept on looking, for Miss Barbee is fair to say.

Without heading the commotion Miss Barbee approached the librarian's desk and handed him one of the application forms which the Library Association insists upon all applicants using. Mr. Jordan had an idea it was the application of an ordinary member of the bar. He left the money and the application with Judge Denison.

Ordinarily an application for membership is not withheld from scrutiny. Miss Barbee's is because the date of her birth appears upon it, and that is a secret guarded even from women who enter the sterner professions. As the statutes require that no one under 21 years of age can be admitted to practice in Missouri, it is not surprising that Miss Barbee is at least that age, though no one would ever suspect it.

In addition to stating Miss Barbee's age, the application gives the place of her birth, Fullman, Wash., the place of her education and the date of her admission to the St. Louis bar in June, 1935.

At the annual meeting of the St. Louis Law Library Association the first Monday in December, there is no doubt that the vote to receive Miss Barbee will be unanimous. Under the rules she will not be admitted until her application is acted upon in the meanwhile even such unresponsive members of the association as hold that women should not invade the field of the law will not doubt be won over. Besides, as Barbee has given as her reference the application Mr. Charles Nagel, President of the City Council, and one of the most members of the profession.

FIRST SUNDAY CONCERT.

Orchestra to Begin Its Afternoon Season.

The first of a series of twenty Sunday concerts will be given by the Symphony Orchestra in Exposition Music Hall Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The musicians will be supplemented by Mrs. Georgia Lee-Cunningham, a well known soloist, and Alfred Ernst will be conductor. The admission is 50c for adults and 10c for children. No seats are reserved.

The programme is as follows:

- Overture—"Rienzi"..... Wagner
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff
- Adagio-Symphony "Im Walde"..... Raff

WAR ON FOR FOUR YEARS.

Democrat Club to Be at the Cathedral.

The ceremony was performed in St. Louis at the invitation of relatives. The couple will reside in Cleveland. The groom is interested in a smoke consumer patent.

An Old Man Missing.

The police have been asked to search for J. A. Campbell, 80 years old, who has been missing from his home, 2112 Dickinson street, since yesterday. He is said to be weak-minded.

—Absolutely Pure—

The greatest American baking powder.

Sold the world over and approved by the highest authorities for healthfulness.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

Bill to Believe Mrs. Nelson Was at Last Defeated.

The City Council at its meeting Friday evening adopted several amendments to the Sutter conduit bill offered by Mr. Horton and the bill was made a special order for Tuesday.

The House resolution providing for a joint committee to draft an ordinance changing the ward boundaries was concurred in and President Nagel appointed Messrs. Horton, Ives and Brinkmeyer.

Among the bills which went to engrossment were those making an additional appropriation for the Water Works Department; authorizing the collection of wharfage dues from tugboats; imposing a license on bicycles and other vehicles, and appropriating $1,500 for the purchase of trees for Lafayette Park.

Mr. Perles introduced a measure raising the bond of plumbers and drain-layers from $1,000 to $2,000.

The bill for the relief of Mrs. Louisa Nelson, whose husband was slain by the elk in Forest Park, was defeated.

At the meeting of the House of Delegates the bill appropriating $5,000 for the repair of tornado damage at Soudard Market was sent to engrossment. A bill appropriating $2,000 for additional street signs was presented.

There is every prospect that Council bill No. 6, which provides for the sale of Union Market, will die of inanition and find interment in a pigeon hole of City Counselor Marshall's desk unless its friends come to its rescue with a legislative injection.

The bill was introduced April 22, 1934, and was given a second reading three days later. Then it went to the Ways and Means Committee, and the committee has been cogitating over it ever since.

A public hearing on the bill was announced a few days ago. The members of the committee were on hand, but nobody came to be heard.

The members of the committee concluded that if neither the friends nor the enemies of the bill took enough interest in it to come and speak for or against it, it could not be of much importance, and as a means of settling the matter they referred it to City Counselor Marshall for an opinion on its legality.

He all hoped and expected that they were looking upon the face of the bill for the last time, and that it would be dead.

The bill provides that the sale must take place during the year 1936, after 30 days' notice has been given. It also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

The bill also provides that the proceeds of the sale be used for the improvement of the city, as directed by the Board of Public Improvements.

It is not probable, anyway, that the City Counselor will be able to say that the bill is not a public use, and that it is not for the benefit of the city.

BURGLAR BOGGS ONCE MORE NABBED.

THE PRISONER HAS A LONG RECORD OF DESPERATE CRIME.

PUT UP A FIGHT AS USUAL.

Police Believe That He Has Had a Hand in Recent Hold-Ups and Housebreakings.

Harry Boggs, one of the most desperate safe-blowers, burglars and highwaymen ever rounded up in this city, was arrested last night at Eighteenth street and Lucas avenue by Detectives McGraw, O'Connell and Williams. Boggs is well known to the police, having served two terms in the Missouri penitentiary for crimes committed in St. Louis. When taken into custody he refused to go with the officers, but after being subjected to a little rough handling he changed his mind.

Boggs was pardoned from the Kentucky penitentiary about a month ago, where he had been serving a life term for a burglary. His pardon was effected through influential friends and relatives, and he was released immediately after his release he came to St. Louis, and although the police knew he was here and were more than anxious to renew their acquaintance with him, they were unable to lay their hands on him till last night.

About fifteen years ago he was convicted of burglary here and given two years in the penitentiary. When released he returned to this city, and a short time later was arrested on a similar charge. He was convicted and given a five-year sentence. After serving this term he again returned to his old haunts, and a short time later was arrested on the charge of blowing a safe in the office of Felix Boggs, box factory, Ninth street and Washington avenue. He was sentenced to the Missouri penitentiary for a term of five years.

For this offense Boggs was indicted under the habitual criminal act, and Detective James Tracy of this city was sent to Louisville to arrest him. He was given a life sentence. His confederates, Malone and Hill, were each given a term of five years. The police believe that Boggs is implicated in some of the recent hold-ups and housebreakings, and an effort will be made to have him identified by the victims.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the Missouri penitentiary, where he will serve his term.

He was taken to the